Jenice Brown was born on July 15, 1934, in Austin, TX, to J.B. and Juanita Arnold, Sr. She was the Youngest of 3 with two older brothers, J.B. Jr. and Walter. As a young girl, she accepted Christ while attending David Chapel Baptist Church in Austin. She later joined as a member of St. James Missionary Baptist Church, where she loved her Pastors, the late Rev. E.M. Franklin Sr., and Dr. B.W. McClendon Sr. She was a dedicated member of the Mass and Women's choirs for many years.

She attended L.C. Anderson High where she met the love of her life, Charles E. Brown. They were joined in holy matrimony in 1951, and six children were born into this union. Jenice was a faithful employee during her years in the workforce and retired from Eagle Signal Corporation in 1999. She loved to cook, listen to music, play dominoes & bid whist, dance, and whistle while cooking, shop, and most of all, she enjoyed spending time with her family.

Jenice was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Charles E. Brown; eldest daughter, Janice Y. Carr; eldest son Michael R. Brown; brother J.B. Arnold, Jr; and grandson Geron M. Brown. She is survived by four loving children, Charles B. Brown, Sandra E. Brown Harris (Robert), Deirdre A.

Harden, Sheri L. Wilturner, and her brother Walter G. Arnold (JoAnn). Jenice is remembered as a devoted wife, mother, daughter, sister, aunt, caring friend, and most of all, the best grandmother, "Bigmama" to all her 11 grandchildren Catina, Dre, Dawn, Cha Chi, Candyce, Geron, Marlon, Cedic, Devan, Darrius, Brandon, and 14 great-grandchildren.
