

Jeremiah Isaiah Johnson

March 16, 1990 - October 3, 2021

<https://www.flipsnack.com/alcbf/jeremian-johnson.html>

On March 16, 1990 in Austin, Texas God blessed Michelle A. Williams (Sneed) and Phillip B. Johnson to give birth to a healthy baby boy who's name was Jeremiah Da'Yohn Isaiah Johnson (J.D). Jeremiah was blessed with multiple skills, talents and gifts. Jeremiah had a great passion for playing basketball, making origami, playing video games, and playing classical music like Beethoven to name a few. He later took interest in oil painting, drawing, sketching and making beats, going on road trips, hanging with family and friends, going fishing with his dad Timothy Williams and playing basketball. Jeremiah enjoyed learning during his school years and achieved high honors. After graduating from Lockhart High School in 2008, he attended Stephen F. Austin University to pursue his dreams in Sports Medicine. Jeremiah became a father on April 2, 2009, to his first son, Isaiah Zachariah Johnson (Snacks). He had great love for his son and enjoyed spending time with him and ensuring to be active in his son's life. Jeremiah's had an innate ability to build anything with his own hands and spent many years of developing, perfecting and working in the construction industry. After several years in the industry he and his partner (Asia) decided to take a leap of faith and became self-employed and opened his business under the name “Constructive Views” contractor and landscape LLC. He was so proud of his projects and loved to build and create new things. On September 14, 2019, Jeremiah welcomed his second son Da’Youn Amir Johnson with his love Asia Mack. He was a very sweet soul that always looked out for other people. The most important thing to Jeremiah was taking care of his family and being there for his sons. On October 3, 2021, Jeremiah’s life journey abruptly ended. Jeremiah was known to his family as Miah, his niece called him Uncle Miah, and his friends called him J.D. Jeremiah will forever be missed, loved and his legacy will forever live on in our hearts and through his boys. He leaves behind his son’s Isaiah Johnson and Da’Youn Johnson. His parents, Michelle Williams and Timothy Williams. Sister’s Jamisha Williams and Jasmine Williams. Niece Aniayah Williams, nephew Aiden Williams-Berry, longtime partner Asia Mack of, a host of other family and friends

“ Baby boi,

Well you would have been 33yrs old on March 16. My day wasn't so good but I made it threw with Gods help. I really miss Isaiah and dad haven't had much contact with him as he did when he would always stay with him over the summer or holidays! Me and the girls just hung out together and I no if you were here you would be so proud of Shae'. She kept pushing in spite of all our hurt and heart aching pain. She graduates from Concordia College with her B.S. Psychology!! and then she's continuing on to get her Masters!! Were so proud of her. Jazzy was so considerate for my birthday and had me a book made with my life and you were in there!! Son no words can express my hurt and pain and just the evilness behind it all!! I am still holding to Gods hand for Justice no matter hold long it takes I still no without doubt and Believe God has the Last Say!!! Love you baby boi and miss you soooo much!!

“ Baby bio,

I miss you so much that no one will ever understand or no. Yes so many folks have said “ they understand”or tell me “it will be ok”or will say “ Be strong girl it will get better”. So many have a lot to say but yet none of them can feel my hurt or pain because they didn’t carry you, they don’t understand that I was suppose to have you on my birthday but had you 1week later, they have no idea how apart of me left but God Truly has been my strength and I can now say without doubt that my God continues to Carrie me . God has comforted me when I don’t have the right words to say. God hears all my screams and feels my mind with Peace. God gives me permission to be alone and just think on the old times and God lifts my head when I have no strength. God is the only person that I can really tell things too and don’t have to worry about me being offended because the person who thought they were saying encouraging words too me was actually offensive.. God being my maker understands me and allows me to grieve without a dead line! No one can really no how I feel because they’ve never lost there a child let alone there only son! ...God is Truly my comforter, A True Father, Mind Regulator, Peace Giver and will carry you when your at your Lowest and Weakest God ! Through all my hurt and Pain God Yet Stands Firms and Keeps my mind stayed on him!!!

AUSTIN (KXAN) — A man accused of shooting and killing another man in early October in north Austin was arrested Monday, the Austin Police Department said.

Dietrich Hancock, 29, is being charged with murder in the death of Jeremiah Johnson, 31.

APD: Man killed in north Austin shooting identified

A warrant for Hancock's arrest was issued Nov. 23, and on Dec. 20, the Lonestar Fugitive Task Force found him. He's being held on a $1 million bond in the Bexar County Jail, APD said.

The shooting took place Oct. 3 in the 500 block of West Longspur Boulevard. That's near North Lamar Boulevard. After callers reported gunshots in the area, police said officers responded and found Johnson shot.

MAP: Where have Austin's homicides occurred in 2021?

He was pronounced dead at the scene. The Travis County Medical Examiner's Office in October did an autopsy and determined Johnson died from multiple gunshot wounds in the manner of homicide, police said.

flying by and it will soon be 1yr since you've left me and your kids and sisters!!! Shae will be graduating soon with her Masters and Jazzy will be moving out of state if God says the same!! I think about how I wish you had positive good people around you!! I often read the letters and cards you gave or sent to me with you being so excited about Life and the dreams you had!!! I pray that Isaiah will be ok and Dayohn because you loved them so much and now they don't have you as there anchor!!! Miss you so much!!

“ Well Babyboi it’s been 5 long months that you were taken from us.. my heart aches and oh how it hurts! But I am grateful That God Almighty sees fit to comfort and I no without doubt he is carrying me!! Some how he allows me to have days of peace and tranquillity!! God also has purposed me to get a sincere relationship with him. I walk and live by Gods permission only!!! Your sisters told me you came to them.. I found your letters you sent me over 9yrs ago and read every last one of them and I found the rose you handmade me and the letter you wrote me for Mother’s Day! The letter touched me so and it comforted my heart because who would have known you would be gone? It’s like I could hear your laugh and your deep voice threw the words of the letter! How you Said “Moms Thank you for always Loving Me and Believing in me even when no one else did or would, Mom You Always Loved Me Nomatter What an because of That Moms You will Always Be My True Love” ! Babyboi I will always Love You just hate the fact that you never kept your promise of beating the odds and living out your dreams you had as a young boy and getting married and having a little girl!!! Love you son miss you much and next week you have been 32yrs old!

My babyboi and only son my heart is heavy and Your 1st birthday came and past since you left!! Me and your sisters were so disoriented and jazzy and shae went to the gravesite to sit and have a long awaited talk too you.. I couldn't do it because it's to painful!! Miah I keep listening to your recordings to always remember that deep and playful laugh!!! Along with reading my text and the cards you made and letters you wrote me!! All I have is memories!!! Me and your sisters just depend on God for strength!! I think about how life comes and goes and all what's tangible is left behind for others but life disappears like a mist right before our eyes!! Days are long and far away but yet short and forgotten at times!!! Oh wow I think about your growing up as a little boy and smiling and running and just being innocent!! I miss you so much babyboi!! Me and your sisters are taking it day by day with Gods help!!! Love and miss you much!!!

Mom loves you son and my heart aches everyday, can't sleep or eat since I found out on October 4th! Son why did you leave us with questions and why so young when you just celebrated Da'Yohn Birthday? Da'Yohn runs to the door every time he here's a knock! Miah oh how I wish if it were a such thing of a wish that we could reverse that day! I wish when Asia begged you to stay home you would have listened. I wish Asia, cousin Q or Asia dad would have answered the phone! I'm sorry son that you laid there wishing on that day that time would have stopped! I love you babyboi my heart is crushed and forever broken over loosing you.. I love you Jeremiah Da'Yohn Isaiah Johnson Williams

So sorry for your loss momma's.... I pray for justice and closure for your family! I live right in front of where they found this beautiful soul just laying there.... I will never forget that night myself..... I have had y'all in my prayers since that day and will always have y'all in my prayers.... May justice be served for y'all... Sending all my love and prayers your way momma's ❤️! May God heal your soul and take all the pain away so that you and your family can rest in peace again amen!! God is great!

I really encourage you to come forth to the police and do the right thing! You praying is fine but if you no and choose to stay quiet it's on your conscience forever!! If it was your baby you would want someone to come forth because we can't get peace or closure without the general public coming forth and no justice can be served without the community helping!! My prayer is that God will convict the hearts of all the people that no something and not allow them to rest til they come forth to help find the people who did this to my only son!!
