Jewel Thomas, 87, formally of Austin died Wednesday, July 14th in Ft. Worth, TX. She was born in Pelham, TX on October 9, 1933, a daughter of the late Thelma and Gealy Thomas. The Family Celebration of Her Life will be 12 Noon on Thursday, July 29th in the chapel of Serenity Funerals & Cremations in Ft. Worth, TX. Burial will be in Cedar Hill Memorial Park. She resided in East Austin for many decades on East 13th Street. She and the late Lillie M. Newby were the best of neighbors and friends. They joined the New Lincoln Baptist Church under the late Pastor A.R. Evans, Sr., and remained until their health prevented them from attending. In November 2020 her niece, Sandra Fain moved her to Ft. Worth so she would not be alone. Ms. Jewel told her niece that “if something happens to her, Dr. Barry J.W. Franklin would make sure her funeral was taken care of the right way.” Thanks to the united efforts of Barry & Marie Franklin, Rev. Darron

Patterson, John Blazer, The children of Lillie M, Newby, Kenneth & Cathie Simpkins and Marjon Christopher, She will have a great celebration of her wonderful life.

“ I'M SORRY SO LATE, DIDN'T KNOW THAT SHE HAD PASSED. SHE WAS A GOOD FRIEND OF MY MOM FOR YEARS, MY CONDOLENCES TO THE FAMILY ... MY MOTHER PASSED BACK IN 2002 AND MY GRANDMOTHER PASSED THE FOLLOWING YEAR ... AND SHE ATTENDED BOTH SERVICES.. WAS ALWAYS THERE TO SUPPORT OUR FAMILY ... WILL BE GREATLY MISSED

“ We were Jewel's neighbors for many years. We appreciated her wit, friendliness and her pecan pies. She was truly neighborly – she would stop by and ask you what you were doing, tell you what was going on in the community, and sit on her porch and talk to people walking by. She was a beloved fixture in the neighborhood and she will be missed.
