(His Service can be viewed on livestream <https://livestream.com/accounts/7325565/johnnybyrd>)

Johnny Lee Byrd fondly known as “Buck” was born on September 27, 1941 to late Willie James Byrd and Alter Mae Washington-Byrd.

He accepted Christ at an early age. He began his adult life working as a truck driver and he did so until he retired.

His passion was cooking. He loved seeing people enjoy the food that he prepared. His motto for a restaurant he once owned in East Austin proudly named “The Fishnet Restaurant” was “Good Food for Good People”. No one was ever hungry around Buck Byrd. He loves to see everyone smile and have a good time.

Johnny was preceded in death by his wife Elitha Louise Tasby, parents Willie James Byrd and Alter Mae Washington-Byrd, brothers J.W. Byrd and Richard Charles Byrd, sisters Almarie Byrd-Grant, Margaret Byrd-Jarmon and Juanita Byrd.

He leaves to cherish his memories to daughter Yumekie (Ivory) Cooks (Dallas, TX), Brandis Tasby step daughter (Austin, TX), son’s Ocasio Byrd (Austin, TX), Cedric Tasby step-son (Houston, TX), grandson Kelvin Campbell Jr., granddaughter Kenya Wicker, Kaila Cooks, and London Cooks, brothers Frank Byrd (Vera) Milton Byrd, Andrew Lee Byrd (Barbara), sister-in-law Lynda Gayle Byrd, nieces Monica Arthur, DeLeon Jarmon, Sharon Ellerby (Don), and Joyce Eliane Richards, nephews Henry Billy Byrd, Willie Ray Byrd, Andrew Byrd, Donald Dallas (Tonya), Sammy Lee Byrd, step-children from previous marriage: Robert, Roderick, Anthony, Tavio (Gooden), Teresa Clark, and a host of other family member and friends.
