Johnny was introduced to Christ at an early age at Deliverance Temple COGIC where he attended for many years. Johnny Llanos Cabrera Jr was born on January 28, 2001, in Austin, TX to Cassandra Barnett and Johnny Llanos Cabrera Sr.

He graduated from LBJ High School in 2019 and worked at Cajun Eats for about 2 years and the security industry. He had a love for basketball. He played for LBJ High School for a short while in 2018. Johnny often went to Givens Recreation Center, YMCA, and other centers across the Austin area to play basketball. Johnny enjoyed playing video games in his spare time with his cousins and friends and he loved playing with his niece and nephews. Johnny was quiet, observant, funny, kindhearted, and very respectful. He enjoyed helping others when he was able to. Johnny was very adventurous as a child and was always on the go with friends. He touched the heart of others with his silly personality while encouraging other youth with his kind words.

Johnny leaves to cherish his memories: mother Cassandra Barnett one sister Briana Benitez, four brothers, Marcus Morris Jr., Alex Benitez, Dominic Barnett, and Akeymiyoun Barnett Sr., his grandmother Patricia Barnett, Godmother Dianna Morgan, aunts and uncles Damion Barnett, Chandra

Barnett, Darnell Barnett, Latrice Hogan, Chris Barnett, Levar Fresch, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. Johnny was preceded in death by his grandfather Minister Louis David Barnett.

“The righteous parish, and no one take it to heart; the devout are taken away, and no one understands that the righteous are taken away to be spared from evil. Those who walk uprightly enter into peace; they find rest as they lie in death.”

I send my heartfelt Condolences to the Barnett family. May God bless you with his Peace, Comfort and Strength during your time of bereavement. Earth has no Sorrow, that Heaven can not Heal, I will continue to pray for the family and especially Chandra. I lost my son in 2020, to gun violence, so I know and feel your pain. God Bless You 🌹🌹
