“ We extend condolence to Karen and the Sherman family. We are saddened by Kato’s passing, but we are confident that he is at peaceful rest, having fought on the Christian battlefield for decades. We will miss Kato in Sunday school and Bible study because his knowledge of the Word was exceptional, and his ability to explain and expound on the Word added so much to any lesson or discussion. We will also miss his booming personality and quick wit. He was Deacon Sherman as we respected his position and work in the church, but he was Kato on a personal level since to considered him a friend.
May God give comfort to the family as you bid farewell to a genuinely kind and caring man.
