

Keith O'Bryan Bedford

January 25, 1983 - September 26, 2023

Keith O'Bryan Bedford was born on January 25th, 1983, to Steven Keith Bedford and Rhonda Faye Shaw Bedford. He grew up in Austin, mainly in Saint John's and East Austin. He attended schools in the Austin Independent School district. He was the eldest of six children (And made sure everyone knew it).

Keith professed his love for Christ and grew up in the Bethany Christian Church family. He was active in Sunday School and the youth department. He later became a member of the Olivet Baptist Church family.

Keith was a very intelligent, charismatic, and comedic individual. He was known as "keKe" to his family and close friends. He kept everyone around him on their toes with his inquisitive conversations. Everyone knew that anytime Keith was around, it was going to be a great time. He was the face that you wanted to see at any gathering. He always pushed for greatness and wanted those around him to excel. His physical presence will truly be missed.

Keith was united in Heaven on September 26th with his daughter, Kelis Grays Bedford; father, Steven Keith Bedford; brother, Timothy "Timmy" Felder; and both of his grandmothers, Margie Nell Hendricks Bedford, and Doris Kellough Ellison. He leave to cherish his loving, comedic, wonderful memories, his mother Rhonda Faye Shaw Bedford; three daughters, Kamryn, Khloe, and Bedford; siblings, Krystal Bedford (Kwame), Ambernee McCorkle (Perry), Ashley Grant (Victor), Quinton Furch, and Isaiah Bedford; bonus brother, Joshua Robertson; aunts, Charlotte Bedford Anderson, Kim Shaw (Isaac), Victoria Shaw Mathis (Charles), Jessica Ellison (John); uncles, John W. Bedford, William D. Bedford (Nell), Douglas Bedford, Darrell Bedford, and Kevin Shaw; Godmother, Denise White (Dion) and God Aunt, Classie Ellison.

Rhonda, My prayers and thoughts are with you and your family....it's very heavy, but, the Lord says his yoke is light. I don't think I would be as "at peace" about the lose of my daughter 3 months ago if I hadn't gone all the way in with my faith in Him. I pray you receive peace! Amen

“ To My Loving Nephew... As auntie sits here trying to gather the words to say, my heart/mind floods with memories that will get me through for a lifetime. We were two peas in a pod I tell you. You were jelly and I was the peanut butter. I was the Kool Aid and you were the sugar. Never would I have thought, at this time, I'd be writing a message to you. You always pushed to me to do better. The many talks we've had, the laughs and cries will forever be in my heart. You weren't just my nephew, you were my brother. I've loved you through the good, the bad, the happy and the sad. And I will forever love you as you take your new journey into Heaven with mama (grandma Doris) Keilis, your dad, grandma Marjorie and Timmy. This place on earth will never be the same without you. You were cowardly taken away from us, but I am a true believer that we shouldn't questions God's plan. Although we seek answers, in due time, everything will be revealed according to his works. May you now Rest In Peace, my dear. You were the best to have ever do it. And through your family, your legacy will forever live on. I love you! Love, Aunt Jessica (P.S., when it's time, save me a seat in Heaven right next to you)

“ To the family of Keith, I'm so sorry for your loss! You all are in my prayers and will remain there! I don't even know where and how to begin... Keke was so REAL and very Genuine person at heart. The things we talked about the most was the Lord!!! We always talked about God, praying and how this world and the both of us knew it wasn't our home. On my worst days out the blue Keke would call me and say something on lines of " if ain't nobody told you you're real, I'm telling you" or " you are a phenomenal woman" and it would turn my entire day around. He'd praise my motherhood and just lift me out of darkness. We have so much in common. I use to write him and that's when I learned that he was one of the smartest people I have ever met... What a beautiful blessing to have him as your friend! I will miss those phone calls, the great debates that he will always win and the conversations were he'd never let you get one word in. To the family, I hope that you guys have God's peace that surpasses our understanding and THANK YOU for sharing Keith with people like me... We need him! If love was a person... it's Keke!
