“ I remember like yesterday when we all met! My Cousins and I would come to our Aunts house to visit for the summer at Booker T! That's where we met you, Elvis, Ellis and Nathan! We had some of the best times! You always had a smile on your face and that laugh, I'll never forget! So rest easy Larrie, We will never forget you! Rochelle, Bastrop, Tx.

“ Rest in peace Big Larry. Tell little Larry we said hello. Let him know we hold it down for him each and every day and you both will never be forgotten.
I am happy Trey was able to see you before you left.

“ To the family of Larry - he was well known in the community- he was such a nice person - he was visiting with my brother not long ago out in my mothers yard - which at that time I didn't even know about his accident in the past - but he was still able to smile, share laughter- I remember him when we were young growing up in Booker T - we all grew up & begin seeing people from our childhood around town - he was always smiling & there was never a dull moment in his presence- he enjoyed his life - he will definitely be missed by all. Go take your rest - God needed you in his heavenly garden - shine on the other side!
