

LaToya Mozell Renea (MO) White

February 4, 1981 - August 5, 2018

LaToya Mozell Renea White also known as “Mama Toy”, was born to the union of Johnny W. White and Katherine Hudspeth White on the day of February 4, 1981, in San Antonio, Texas.

She professed her faith with Christ and was baptized at an early age at Tri Stone Baptist Church in San Antonio, Texas.

She attended elementary and middle school in San Antonio, Texas and after moving to Austin, Texas she attended Johnston High School. On August 14, 1997, she became a proud mother of Terrance Keishun Bennet, Jr., who she loved more than life. LaToya loved a good spades game, was very strong willed and opinionated, and also loved hard. She was the rock that held us together. The most important thing to her was her family that she loved dearly. LaToya’s great grandmother, Katherine Thompson; great grandfather, James Woods, great uncle, Pastor Willis Thompson; and her father, Johnny W. White preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her life: son, Terrance Keishun Bennett, Jr., fiancé, Marlon Springs; mother Katherine Hudspeth White; loving stepfather, Julius Rolling Sr; brother, Julius Rolling, Jr. (Julia); sisters, Lakeshia Hudspeth-Jones (Carl); Crystal Brown, Ericka White, Geisla Brown, and Vanitee Kearse; grandmother, Lavern Robinson; Uncle; Rickey “Teddy” Robinson (Donna); great uncles, Seth Hudspeth (Brenda) and Lorenzo Thompson; great aunts, Etta Wallace and Phyllis Jannan; and a host of other relatives and numerous friends.
