Lee L. Simpkins, aka "Uncle Butch" was born on January 10, 1954 to the union of John W. Simpkins and Edna Simpkins.

Uncle Butch professed his faith in Jesus Christ at a very young age, and will always be remembered by family and friends for saying, "Thank you and God bless."

Uncle Butch received his formal education in the Austin Independent Schools. He quietly and lovingly went about living and probably is remembered by the regulars at Antoine where he worked in customer service for a number of years.

He loved spending time watching Western Movies, dancing and listening to music.

Uncle Butch was preceded in death by his parents: John and Edna Simpkins; sisters: Frances Duncan and Mary D. Brown; brothers: Claude, J.C., John, Edward, Wesley, Ben and Thomas Simpkins.

He leaves great memories with his sisters: Virginia Logan (Arthur), Edna Henry (Cliff), Etta Washington and Alice Burse; brother: David Simpkins, a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
