Brother Leon Clark, Jr.

Leon Clark, Jr. was born May 2, 1949 in Kimbro, TX to Leon Clark Sr. and Jessie Mae Blaine who proceeded him in death. Leon was called home Saturday, September 14, 2024.

Leon accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized by the late Rev. Bacon at Greater Mt. Zion Baptist Church. He attended Austin Public schools. He went on to graduate from the Old Anderson High "Yellow Jackets" in 1969.

Leon worked for Bray and Jordan Hospital Pharmacy, and the Austin American Statesman. In 1994 he joined Mt. Zion Baptist Church.

Leon married Earnestine Clark, where they shared a loving life of 40 years. They raised four sons together.

Leon leaves to cherish precious memories; his wife, Earnestine Clark; sons, Robert Berry (deceased), Andrew Berry, Christopher Clark and Dezmond Clark; brothers, Leonard Clark (deceased) Waymon Clark (deceased), Larry Carter and Ronnie Clark. Four grandchildren; three great grandchildren and a host of cousins, nephews and nieces and stepmother, Evelyn Clark.

“ Heartfelt condolences and prayers to Ernestine Clark family. Bro. Leon was a man who's life was to help people and the one's who came into his presence knew he loved the Lord. He always would tell you the truth whether you wanted to hear it. A honorable man of God, who will truly be missed. RIP Mr Leon, absence from the body is present with the Lord.
