“ Me and my Aunt shared some fond memories. When she was in the “world” everyone called her by her middle name “Sue”! But she gave her life to Christ, she preferred to be called by first name, Linda! Throughout her life living with cancer, from the first diagnosis, she always said, “I counted it all Joy”! And she never deviated from that. Now! She is probably singing, “How she got over”! I will miss that laughter and those tears rolling; she would laugh so hard, when we talked.
Love you Auntie!
