Linda Rochelle Brown-Young was born in Austin, Texas on February 4, 1960 to Virginia Nell Marshall and Leo Brown Sr.

God released her from all pain and discomfort as she entered rest in this life's journey. She received her heavenly wings on Thursday, September 8, 2022, while at home with her children and family.

She was preceded in death by her Husband-- Sergeant Robert Young Sr., Mother-- Virginia Marshall, Sister-- Kathy Organ and Son-- James Hutchison.

Linda found Christ at a young age while attending Greater Mt Zion Baptist Church under Pastor Gaylon Clark. Later she became a member of St. James Missionary Baptist Church under Pastor B.W. McClendon; where she joined the choir.

Linda attended school at Blackshear Elementary, Kealing Middle School and Reagan High School in Austin, Texas. While in High School she participated in ROTC and furthered her career working for Checks, Minnie's Beauty Salon, Super 8 Motel, AT&T, University of Texas and Motorola. She was a wife, mother, sister and ride or die friend. She loved to sing and occasionally sang with Jean and the Rolletts with her father Leo Brown Sr. and her late aunt Gloria Jean Brown. Linda was always changing her hairstyles and enjoyed cracking jokes to make everyone laugh and smile. It was evident that Linda was loved by many and was the life of the party when her family and friends came together. She would dress up as different characters; like giving herself a beard and dressing up as an old man to fool us. Linda truly kept the party alive and kept us all laughing especially the grandchildren who were the light of her world.

Linda leaves memories to cherish by her Father-- Leo Brown Sr. and --Step-mother Shirley Mackey-Brown, Austin, Texas. Two Sons-- Bobby Hutchison, Austin, Texas, Donald Hutchison, Austin, Texas. Two Daughters-- Samisha Hutchison (Malachi), Austin, Texas and Regina Hutchison (John), Austin, Texas. Two Brothers-- Leo Brown Jr. (Chandrika) and Jimmy Brown (Deshon) Manor, Texas and One-half sister-- LaTonya Brown, Katy, Texas. “ Linda was a very good friend to me. I met her back in 1992 and when we parted ways i search for her for over 20 years...when i moved to Austin i found her. What a great moment that was as we reminisced. She was the same i met so long ago. As we enjoyed visiting each other quite often and i had the pleasure of meeting some of her family and friends. She will always have a specail place in my heart. She will truly be missed but never forgotten so rest in peace my friend
