“ Auntie L, you are now with your brother. You were a PEACEMAKER, you listened without judgements and your daughters are beyond beautiful inside and out. The grandchildren are just another extension of your love. I'll miss you and your coupons and free fragrance samples. I can go on and one but, I'll keep the others tucked in my heart. Your death touched me and the children greatly and deeply. Families sometimes separate however, I'm blessed that your love for us NEVER waivered. We loved you and will never forget you.

“ To all the entire family members of Lucille (Lucy) Bedford Barnes you are all in our prayers that God will give you strength comfort & healing during this time of grief & sorrows. My heart is so heavy to see that my dear friend of so many years will no longer be in our lifes but I know she will forever be in our hearts & mind. Lucy was a sweet loving & caring soul & she would give you her last if you needed it. We would always try & check on each other every now & than just to see how we were doing or if we were going to be going to sing somewhere with Chester & M3. I will never forget our last tour in March 2017 we had an awesome time on the bus traveling to Mississippi & Louisiana Singing , shopping & just hanging out having fun. One thing I will never forget Lucy told me to always keep sunglasses in my car to wear while driving during bad weather because the rain would make everything look so grey & hazy you could hardly see through the car Windows. To this day I have several pairs of shades in my car just for that reason & it really works. Lucy had a lot of knowledge in the medical field in which she gave me advise on some things as well. So it is definitely going to be a void in my heart because she was such a dear friend to me & my husband Frank.

Rest In Paradise..(Lil Lucy) ..

Blessings,
