Marilynn A. Hart, 61, of Terrell, Texas, died at 6:10pm, Saturday, May 8th, 2021 at Longmeadow Skilled Facility in Justin, Texas. She was born July 24th, 1959 at Parkland Hospital in Dallas, Texas to Jacob Polk and Mary Hart Barnett. She only married once and realized that it wasn't for her.

Surviving is her Son's Patrick Hart (Tamesha Hart) of Keller, Texas, Robert Dunn (Terina Buentello) of Austin, Texas; 2 younger sisters, Hope Barnett Garcia (Bobbie) and Wendy Gonzales (Patrick); 1 younger brother, Ricky Hart; 2 nephews, Jasmond Williams, JaCory Curry; 3 nieces Britny Sampson, Peyton Jacobs (Bruce Jacobs), Bria Daye; 4 grandson's, Bryant Young, Zachary Troxler, O'Neal Hart, Jayden Hart, (1) granddaughter Khalifa Watson; 2 great grandkids, Noah Young (9) & Norielle Young (3).

Her father, mother, and brother, Jacob Polk, Mary Barnett and Stevie Barnett preceded her in death.

Marilynn was a self-proclaimed "Hustler" and laid roots in Austin, Texas as a teenager. There she perfected her skills of cooking "Soul Food" and found that her smile opened doors for her. Her hobbies included talking about her boys, cooking, getting her nails and hair done, going to the movies (Action or Drama preferred), gambling, driving cars fast and making people smile. Her superpower was her ability to walk into any room and make everyone feel comfortable. When you were in her presence, you couldn't help but to feed on her energy. There are few people that carried the energy of the Sun the way that she did.

She was a devoted mother and took her role as provider, protector, educator and ambassador quite seriously. She preferred talking to older adults because she told us that's who you learned your wisdom from but equally could make any kid feel good about themselves. If the word Love had a picture; it would look like her.

“ I will always remember when I met Ms. Hart. Her smile was so infectious. Within minutes we were laughing like old friends. In my life I've come to understand only those with the kindest of hearts have the ability to extract kindness, happiness and peace from complete strangers. That's what I felt speaking with her, laughing with her and in remembrance of her. When those types of souls leave this earth, we mourn but also rejoice that heaven is that much better.

“ We only met Mrs Marilyn a few years ago however, she took to my wife and myself right away, inducting us as family in her already tight knit circle. I had the opportunity a few months later to spend the day with her, helping her shop for her new apartment in Fort Worth.

She and I talked about her boys, her grandson, and everything in between. I came to understand the relationship between her and her sons. And I got a first hand glimpse into why it was so important for Patrick to spend those few hours with her every weekend.

Our family is deeply saddened for your family's loss and offer our sincerest condolences. We love you all and pray for your peace.

“ Pat talked about his amazing mom back at Fort Eustis, Va

*Meeting her in person justified every word....so many amazing attributes...and the one attribute that stands out the most....telling it like it is.

Back in 2000, I bought a No Limit chain for 80 bucks....I wore that chain with pride until mama Marilyn saw it....and she said and I quote "P that's a nice chain even though it's not real gold"😂😂

Of course I claimed it's real because the street bum (who sold me the chain) told me its real...hey why would he lie😂😂😂

😂😂 oh and she continued "Porter baby gold is shiny... that chain dull now dont wear it too long because its gonna irritate your neck 🤢🤢🤢 oh the shame. I learned something that day. I learned the truth is the truth no matter who tell it....thank you mama...you're missed dearly already “ Ms. Marilyn said exactly what she thought, and she meant exactly what she said.

She was incredibly kind and generous with all she had. She fed those who were hungry. Comforted and encouraged those who were down. Taught those who didn't know any better.

She was always herself, unapologetically!

She saw value and took joy in the simple things that most people take for granted or wouldn't even notice.

She loved her children and family fiercely, without a second thought.

She saw the artist in me when I could not. She pushed me to be wiser, stronger, better. And she stood with me when I needed it.

For all these reasons and so many more (too many to list), she will always hold a special place in our hearts.

“ Ms. Hart was part of my village. (Village to raise a child) She made me feel like I was one of her boys. The love from her was so strong that when I was a teenager, I was trying to get her attention and I said ma...,but I stopped myself because I normally say Ms. Hart. She looked at me with her beautiful smile and said “baby it’s alright you can say mama” and from that day on I called her mama Hart. I am lucky and blessed to grow up with her in my life.

You were my brother and mom recognized you as such. I am truly grateful that you were able to experience a mother's love the way that I was able to.
