Mary selfless told me to have her lunch she was not hungry. I said no thank you need to eat .She told me I better eat this lunch .With a big smile. Mary love to play bingo so on that day she ask me to pick her cards and told me how to pick them in detail and she won as usually. We alway sit together at lunch along with same people everyday and watch out for each other who sit with us Dr. Jones who was her teacher when she was young .Mary also watch out for Mary White that I call Mom she has early dementia and would make sure. that before she left to go that Mom was with me she would bring her to me .She would sit and talk to mom after lunchtime. And bring Mom to ceramic classroom. Where we took class together. I knew something was wrong when the next day she miss the Christmas breakfast when had told me she would me there. And she didn't come for bingo I ask the office to call and check on her .She never miss bingo. We will miss this beautiful selfless person with the big heart. Watching Mary live and enjoy her life under health circumstances .She would go on trip and enjoy herself to the fullest. and in her church. To Crystal and Rodrick and grandchildren and family. “ She and her siblings were outstanding students in the choir at St. John's Elementary School where I taught music. I will always cherish the support of her wonderful family. Within recent years we reunited as table mates at Connaley-Guerrero Senior Activities Center what a joyful reunion. Her dedication to service was continued by becoming a member of the Senior Guild. She will be sorely missed. Fervent prayers and hugs.

“ A prayer of Peace and Comfort to the family. Mary was my classmate in 1967 at Old L.C. Anderson High School. I remember Mary most of all as being a very beautiful and reserved lady. She was always quiet but extremely smart and friendly. I am very blessed to have known Mary Ella.
