Perhaps you sent a beautiful card, or we quietly do it then
Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if we we were in there
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words or any friend could say
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day
Whatever you did to comfort our hearts
We thank you so much

“ This is very difficult in so many ways. I am deeply saddened not to have met by brother in person. However, I definitely shared many phone calls and being able to see his stories through social media. May he rest in heavenly peace. I extend my deepest condolences, love and prayers out to the entire Means Family. I will surely miss his voice saying “what’s up sis” 🙏🏻🤲🏻

“ 20+ years I've know Michael. For years we were THE DREAM of OAC. For many years I was his right hand. We've shared a lots of laugh over the years. We all had NICK names I was "TOOTY" short for my last name ,we all were a unit because him. What will ALWAYS make me smile is how he would come down with that dance he did , thinking he was Michael Jackson with his big ole smile. I would tell him " you missed a beat try it again".
To the MEANS FAMILY, I am TRULY SORRY for your loss. Mike will FOR EVER BE MISSED!

“My cousin passed away days after I was going down memory lane with my mom about our happy moments together when I was in my "coming of age" days. My cousin Michael Means scared me when I was little for some reason but he became the best big brother and protector as I got older. He lived with us for a while and to this only child who used to put "older brother" on her christmas list, he was everything I wished for. When i was just getting into high school, he helped me get rid of the "ugly duckling" phase. He taught me how to dance, he helped me pick trendy clothes and even found me a hair salon to get the newest and best asymeric hair style that was all the rage at the time. He gave me advice on boys and let me know that most were aholes who didnt deserve me. Lol. He got angry for me when my heart was hurt and offered to handle it himself. He was my cool cousin, the handsome athlete, my older and wiser brother and he made me laugh all the time. He was so damn funny and kind. I regret not calling when he was on my mind so hard. I know he is making them laugh like crazy in Heaven right now though. My heart goes out to his wife, kids and my aunt, uncle and my cousins Jerry and Tyrone. I love you all. 2020 became that much harder. Show your love to your loved ones whenever you can. Life is short and hard but love should always sustain us.

“ Mike, where do I begin!!! This is very hard to put this in words. My heart is broken, but happy we have great memories. You were the best boss I've ever had. For five years we held 600 Congress down. We were like Batman and Robin(he was Batman of course) I'm sure we worked each others nerve a time or two, but most important we enjoyed working with each other. We got married the same day just a couple hours apart. I remember that like it was yesterday. Then our babies were born a week apart. I could go on and on about the good times but, but I'll be here forever. Major Means this is still so hard to believe. You may be gone, but you'll never be forgotten. You touched many lives. I Love you Bossman!! Rest easy. Sending prayers to the Joyner and Means family. Respectfully Angelica.
