“ Above everything that can be remebered or said about My Dear Aunt Molly, the one thing that stands out above all things: She acknowledged, honored, and praised GOD with every word of her mouth, every beat of her Heart, every second of her precious Life.

After the passing of my Grandmother Luella, and Grandfather, Hilliard, she was the one who continued to make the country house a home. I was so grateful that I was eventually able to bring my family and children, Maya and Cleveland, to that same home I visited as a child. Aunt Molly welcomed everyone who came, with love, of course, lots of delicious food! I totally understand where her son, and my cousin, Steve, got his passion and talent for preparaing great meals!

Aunt Molly will be deeply missed, yet I celebrate and honor the Life she lived so well. The Life she lived, totally dedicated to GOD, her Maker.

Much Love,
Gerald Savage
Nephew of Molly J. Woods
