Broken Chain
*My little know that God was going to call your name
 He did not leave you alone, He thought we did the same
 It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not get alone
 Your part of us never will give
 The day God called you home
 You left us searching destination, your love is still*

“ To the family and friends, I send my condolences. I don't need to tell you how amazing Myrtis was I will only tell you “my” experience. A true woman of God. She was always bold in expressing her spiritual knowledge, in an effort to help save souls. She was always available to me and although she based her decisions solely on Gods word, I was never judged I always felt loved and understood. Myrtis was an influence in my life from childhood to present. I truly valued her as a motherly, sisterly, friend. The selfish side of me is sad that she won't physically be here but the spiritual side knows that she was practicing for this time her whole life. The heavens are rejoicing. I know she lived a life that God is truly proud of. He has said, “WELL DONE.....” Myrtis, I thank you for who you were to me. I thank you for your unconditional love, I thank you for your support, I thank you for you just being you. You meant so much to me. I'm so glad that I did tell you that so many times. (you loved your born day so much you put it on your license plate...) I will NEVER forget you or your birthday. You are truly missed but I know heaven is rejoicing! Rest easy. I LOVE YOU AND THAT WON'T CHANGE.

“ To my son Eldred, and the entire family, may the promises of God's comfort and hope be with you all. Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life, he that believeth in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live." May God's hope-filled promises bring comfort to your soul, and peace to your heart. We loved Mytis, but God loved her best. Also know that God makes no mistakes. Love, you dad, Pastor Emeritus Bobby Ray Brown, and Missionary Deloris Brown

“ To my brother Eldred, and the entire family, I extend my deepest sympathy to each of you. It's hard to lose someone you love, especially when it happens so unexpectedly. Always remember that you have the love and concern of family and friends. Myrtis fought a good fight, she finished her course, and she kept the faith. My prayer is that God will carry you through this time as only He can. So sorry we can't be there in with you in person today, but we are there in spirit. Love you Eldred.
