Nancy Lee Clemons, 89, of Amarillo, Texas, passed away peacefully on November 24, 2024, surrounded by her loving family. Born on September 16, 1935, in Otto, Texas, to Lee Willis and Lula Lonzar, Nancy was a beacon of love, faith, and service throughout her life. Her early years were spent in Slaton, Texas where she attended Slaton Public School. Nancy's passion for helping others led her to Amarillo, where she continued her education at Amarillo College Nursing School, becoming a Licensed Vocational Nurse. In her career and personal life, Nancy exemplified care and compassion, leaving a lasting impression on all who knew her. Raised in a family of believers, Nancy found her spiritual home as a devoted member of Mt. Olive Baptist Church, serving faithfully under the leadership of Rev. Spencer and Rev. Neal. Her unwavering faith guided her life and inspired those around her. She is preceded in death by her father, mother, second mother Mable Willis, brother, sons Paul, James, and Travis, daughter Toney, and granddaughter LaQuita Younger.

Nancy's life was enriched by her large, loving family. She leaves to cherish her memory one daughter, Dianne Scott (Bruce) of Austin, Texas; two sons, Bobby Clemons (Lisha) of Austin and Lance Clemons of Amarillo, Texas; 16 grandchildren; 26 great-grandchildren; and 20 great-great-grandchildren. She will also be missed by a host of extended family, friends, and close relatives. Nancy Lee Clemons' legacy of faith, love, and dedication to her family and community will forever be remembered. May she rest in eternal peace.
