It's not how long the flower blooms, but how beautifully.

Nanika Adiya Alston passed away in her home on Friday, April 2, 2021. She was born June 3, 1980 to Alice Taylor in Austin, TX. Nika was a loving mother and devout wife. She had a huge love for music, fashion, and interior decorating. One of her biggest dreams was to be a model. Nika loved being with her family, always taking them to the park, doing arts and crafts, or just hanging out watching a movie.

Nika is survived her husband Micheal Alston, her sons, Daylen Odems and Zory Alston, her daughters Makailyn and Kylee Alston, her mother Alice Poole (Lynn Poole), and her sister Ebonie Bolden.

“ Nika, I will miss the texts, the calls and the love you always shared with me. You were so sweet and kind and your love was true and pure. Truly, while I know that God had HIS reasons for calling you home at this time, it's still hard to bear. I will forever remember you and thank God that we had a chance to catch up before HE called you home. Forever in my heart,
Ms.Gwen

“ Nika, I am so confused. But one thing that always true was your love for life. You were my best friend in high school and gave me memories I will never forget. I can't believe, even though I know it has to happen. I love you my dear friend. You will be missed.

“ Your friendship meant more to me than you may possibly ever know. I looked forward to your “good morning” text every single day & loved that I could talk to you about literally anything & everything. I loved watching your babies grow ... they were your everything. & I loved how much you cared about my girls & always asked how they were doing. You were a special friend to me & I am going to miss you so so much. I will never forget you ... I love you, Nika.
