“ Daddy, you're truly missed. I just wish I could hear your voice. A good argument, disagreement on basketball, football, politics and church is definitely needed. Just a good laugh at the end. Old Man, I sit in your chair trying to get that calm and collective spirit you had. I miss my Daddy... Love you ❤️

“ A lasting memory I have of Cousin Nick was his great sense of humor. Everytime we talked, he made me laugh or smile. My prayer is for the family to find comfort and peace in the knowledge that he is now present with the Lord, and someday, we will see him in the Kingdom. With love, Sylvia
