

PHYLLIS ELAINE ROWE

February 6, 1960 - January 7, 2021

Phyllis Elaine Williams Rowe, age 60, passed away peacefully on January 07, 2021 due to complications from kidney disease. Phyllis was born February 6, 1960 in Brownwood, Texas to Robert and Vera Williams. She married Johnny Rowe in October of 1982 in Brownwood, Texas. They had three sons, Isaac, Marcus and Benjamin.

Phyllis loved music, playing the piano and worshiping at her father's church, Bethel C.O.G.I.C, where she was a member of the church choir. After graduating Brownwood High, she attended Tyler Junior College where she played clarinet in the marching band. Phyllis also loved to cook and to eat, and had a passion for fashion. Her cooking skills were especially enjoyed by her three boys. Her famous peach cobbler and soul food recipes were among their favorites. Her hands were rarely still. She enjoyed being outdoors, going fishing and being around people. Before her illness prevented her, Phyllis was attending Austin Community College working towards a degree to become a chemical dependency counselor. She was an advocate for the homeless community speaking for the Austin City Council on their behalf. Phyllis used to always say: "Bounce Back! You have been given another day so it's time to bounce back". Her favorite Bible verse, John 3:16 — "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son so that whosoever believes in him will not perish but have everlasting life."

Phyllis is survived by her spouse Johnny and sons Isaac, Marcus, Benjamin and daughter-in-law Amber. Her mother Vera Williams, sister Robin Williams, and brothers Rodney, Derwin and Greg Williams, and sister-in-law Danielle Williams; grandchildren Symphony, Amali and Anavi and nieces/nephews Christopher, Lacreasha, David, Alexandria, Mason, Connie and Kobe. All of whom she loved deeply.

Previous Events

Celebration Service

JAN 15. 1:00 PM (CT)

Greater Love Baptist Church
6601 Manor Road
Austin, TX 78723

Tribute Wall

“ PHYLLIS ELAINE ROWE

October 06, 2023 at 07:08 AM

“ 4 files added to the album Memories Album

A former member, serving on the governing council of the father's church, Bethel C.O.M.E.C., where she was a member of the church choir. After graduating Brentwood High, she attended Tyler Junior College where she played clarinet in the marching band. Phyllis also loved to cook and sew, and had a passion for fashion. Her cooking skills were especially enjoyed by her three boys. Her famous peach cobbler and meat loaf recipes were among their favorites. Her hands were fairly still. She enjoyed being outdoors, going fishing and being around people. Before her illness prevented her, Phyllis was attending Austin Community College working towards a degree to become a clinical dietitian/nutritionist. She was an advocate for the homeless community speaking for the Austin City Council on their behalf. Phyllis used to always say "Blessed Be! You have been given another day on all a time to 'be back'". Her favorite Bible verse, John 3:16 - "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son so that whosoever believes in him will not perish but have everlasting

Song of Worship
Remarks - Friends and Family
Resolution - Elder Danielle Williams
Eulogy - Pastor Greg Williams
Recessional

A Life Celebration by Franklin - January 21, 2021 at 05:09 PM

“ Phyllis was a very kind person and I enjoyed attending Church Services with her. We had some very meaning conversations when we met. I know that she is resting in peace. I know Mother Williams feels a void in her life. However she knows her daughter Phyllis is at peace. Until we meet again.
Julia Coleman Dobbins.

Julia Dobbins - January 12, 2021 at 10:54 PM

RD

Phyllis Will be remembered for her beautiful dimples smile and big heart ❤️. She loved to come to church and praise the Lord with singing and playing the piano. She enjoyed dressing up and looking very pretty. She learned to cook soul food from her mother Vera William. No more pain , Rest in the arms of Jesus

Robert and Alice Davis - January 14, 2021 at 04:32 AM

“ Rodney Williams lit a candle in memory of
PHYLLIS ELAINE ROWE

Rodney Williams - January 11, 2021 at 03:57 PM

BJ

Phyllis was my oldest niece, I will miss her. We have another link of The Chain broken, she will always be with us in spirit. Love to my family Aunt Betty.

Betty Johnson - January 15, 2021 at 12:33 PM