

Retha Lee Slaughter

November 8, 1915 - December 31, 2015

Who can find a virtuous woman? For her price is far above rubies. Proverbs 31:10

On December 31, 2015 a Heavenly Angel descended and led Mother Retha Lee Gonzales Slaughter (Coochie) into the Lord's Merciful Arms.

A beautiful blessing, baby girl was born to the late Manuel Gonzales and Minnie Simms Gonzales, in Cedar Creek, Texas.

Mother Retha Lee Gonzales Slaughter was a life time resident of Bastrop, County. She confessed her hope in Christ at an early age and was baptized at Shiloh Primitive Baptist Church, Bastrop, Texas. She served as a faithful member until her health failed. She was an usher, choir member, and she was a mother of the church.

Mother Slaughter attended the Long Branch School. She was united in Holy Matrimony to the late Deacon Udell Slaughter on December 17, 1934. Into this matrimony a daughter was born. Mother Slaughter worked as a housewife. She loved to sing, cook, and sew. She loved all children and she enjoyed sitting out on the porch. She was preceded in death by her husband, parents, brothers and sisters.

Mother Slaughter leaves in God's hands to celebrate her memory one daughter, Retha DeShay (Rev. Phillip DeShay) of Bastrop; two granddaughters, Erica Slaughter and Rachel DeShay, both of Bastrop. A host of nieces and nephews, cousins and other family and friends
