

Robert Lee Cleveland , Sr.

February 21, 1958 - June 30, 2016

Robert L. Cleveland was the 3rd child of a family of nine (5 boys and 4 girls). Robert was born and raised in Austin, Texas. Robert accepted Christ as his Savior at a young age at the Cottonwood Baptist Church where Reverend B. T. Page was pastor.

Robert attended Blackshear Elementary, Martin Jr. High, Austin High, and later transferred to Reagan High School. He met his sweetheart, Cheryl, and later married at the Ulit Avenue Baptist Church in Austin, Texas. From this union, two children were born, Bobby and Robert Jr. Cleveland. He was a proud Father and loving Grandfather of 4.

Robert was employed with the City of Austin for many years and completed his work with pride each day. Prior to that he was a cook at a major hotel/restaurant chain in the city.

Robert truly loved the Lord and in Sunday School, his favorite song was , “This Little Light of Mine.” He loved sports and was very competitive.

He leaves to mourn his passing, his Mother, Gertrud bullard, 4 brothers and 4 sisters, 2 sons, 4 grandchildren, and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, nieces, nephews, family and friends
