Sister Ruthie Mae Clark Hendricks was born May 7, 1936, in Webberville, Texas to the late Reverend Amos Clark and Helen Rutledge Clark.

Ruthie attended the Webberville Public School, Kealing Junior High School, L.C. Anderson High School, and Durham Business College.

Ruthie was baptized at the St. John College Heights Baptist Church of Austin, Texas, where her father was pastor. She served diligently, at the College Heights Church, until her health failed.

On January 31, 1956, she married Clarence Hendricks and to this union, 2 sons, Ray and Carl were born.

Ruthie served as the recording secretary of the St. John Regular Baptist District Association for more than three decades. She served professionally as secretary and registrar at St. John Elementary Schools, John. H. Reagan High School, Blackshear Elementary, Sims Elementary, Norman Elementary, and Oak Springs Elementary in Austin Independent School District.

Ruthie was preceded in death by her parents, Reverend Amos Clark and Helen Rutledge Clark; sisters, Alene Chambers, Hattie Lee Clark, and Bessie Clark; brothers, Amos Clark and Willie Clark, George Clark, and daughter-in-law Sandra Johnson Hendricks.

Ruthie leaves to cherish her memory, her loving and devoted husband of 67 years, Deacon Clarence Hendricks. Ruthie's legacy will continue on through her sons, Rev. Ray Hendricks (Shirley) and Carl Hendricks (Wanda) grandsons Darrick Hendricks, Joshua Hendricks, Jordan Hendricks, and Jon Paul Hendricks; granddaughters Deandrea Blades (Robert), Desirae Patterson (Chauncey), Joyce Hendricks and JoWanda Hendricks, Natasha King (Vashon); great-grandchildren Alaijah, Darriah, Jaylen, Starlette, Jornaee, Journee, Heaven, Jasinya, JoRiah, Rocco, Jayce, Romeo, and Berkley; a host of nieces and nephews, cousins, and other relatives and family members.

Goodbye, Dear Sister in Christ. It was always a joy to be in your presence. I often remember how gracious and supportive you were when we served together in the Women and Girls' Conference of the Missionary Baptist General Convention of Texas. It's been a few months since we talked, and what a delightful fellowship it was. Rest well, Ruthie. I will miss you.
