

Samuel Lott

October 3, 1953 - June 16, 2017

SAMUEL MILTON LOTT was born October 3, 1953 to the late Howard Milton and Thelma (Ellison) Lott. He was the sixth of eight children. Samuel departed this life June 16, 2017.

Samuel was baptized at the age of seven in the Alpha SDA Church. He was active as a youth leader in the Youth Department and a faithful choir member. His favorite song was Ain't Got Time to Die.

Samuel graduated from Stephen F. Austin High School in Austin, Texas. He was a lover of art and an artist who during his Junior and High School years had several paintings on exhibit at various art shows. His talent and love for art gained him a scholarship to continue his education at The University of Texas at Austin, where he received a bachelor of Psychology degree.

Samuel enjoyed driving and working on his favorite car the Ford Mustang, and of course watching the Dallas Cowboys. He also enjoyed discussing Bible facts as they relate to the world today.

Samuel worked at the Travis County Sheriff's Office for more than thirty years. He retired in 2014.

Samuel is survived by his sisters; Martha Lewis, Rose Davis, Ella Lott Moore, Cindy Lott; his brothers, Robert E. Lott, Jeffery E. Lott; his nieces and nephews, and the rest of his family and friends.

Samuel is preceded in death by his parents, his brothers; Willie J. Burton, Walter Lott, and Wilmer L. Lott.
