Shaneka Shanwt'e Campbell was born May 14, 1979, in Austin, Texas to Celestine Campbell and Ethan Lee. She attended Austin public schools: Andrews Elementary, Pearce Middle School and The Clifton Center. She graduated from Sidney Lanier High School in 1997.

Shaneka accepted Christ at a very young age. She enjoyed being around family and friends. She especially loved her mother's home cooked meals on her Birthday, at Thanksgiving and at Christmas. Shaneka loved listening to music (blues was her favorite), making art through drawing and painting, dancing, and shopping for the latest fashions.

Shaneka was preceded in death by her son Anthony Rayquan Campbell; her maternal grandmother Mary Nell Campbell; her maternal grandfather, Gene Autry Moore, Sr., and her uncle Ronnie Scales.

Shaneka is survived by her mother, Celestine Campbell; father, Ethan Lee; brothers: Samuel Crittenden, Jr., and Anthony King; sisters: LaToya Crittenden, Monique Okeke (Anthwon), and Chaney Collins; Grandmothers: Lillian Moore and Frankie Lee; and a host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
