

Sheila Yvette Wilson

November 17, 1965 - June 15, 2024

Sheila Yvette Carr Wilson, the eldest child of Norris Carr Jr. and Linda Ann Caldwell Williams, was born on November 17, 1965, in Austin, Texas.

Sheila played a 'more than that' role in the lives of everyone she touched; she was more than a wife, daughter, sister, aunt, niece, cousin, or friend. She made her family feel like her best friends and her friends feel like family, always greeting you with a smile and a warm hug.

Preceded in death by her parents, she leaves behind her husband of 13 years, Arthur Wilson of Austin; Bonus Mom Claudette Carr of Austin, Texas; stepfather Dewey Williams of Pflugerville, Texas; her sunshine Ashley Caldwell Russell (Michael) of Maryland; brother Christopher Allen Carr of Dallas, Texas; sister Sarah Lynn (David) of Arlington, Texas; nieces Ja'lyn and Priscilla; nephew David Jr. and a host of loving nieces and nephews, dynamic cousins, and close friends.

“ The first person I met when I walked into the "little St. Mary's church". Warmest smile, biggest hugs, and Bro. Chase on the organ telling you to sing!! My pew buddy - right side, third row from the front...our spot since 2001! Our talks, laughs, many tears...and you calling me by my whole name :) You encouraged me (and Brenda) to jump on the phone with you at 6 am to pray chat for years!! The BBQ spot in Giddings -right over the tracks, Starbucks on Parmer, and Chilis will never be the same. The Experiencing God classes that you taught, for me will be your legacy!! I love you Sheila....rest in the arms of Him who you've loved your whole life.

“ Sheila was an honorary member of the CrossWork Christian Center (St. Mary North) Communications Ministry. She served as the lead designer, working with the narrator, writer, and director weekly to create wonderful designs. She had a great sense of humor and willing and helpful spirit. We miss her greatly and pray for comfort to her family and friends.

“ To one who gave unselfishly to others. I met Sheila through my Family the Booths, many years ago. Such a beautiful loving individual who I shall "never forget". Praying for her dear husband and other family members. Sheila blessed our family last year during my husband's passing. Her talent and skill in what she did was nothing short of God's blessing through her. Rest well, "pretty Sheila". Another flower in Heaven's garden.
