STANLEY CHRISTOPHER HALL was born on December 24, 1961, in Rockdale, Texas to Dessa Williams McGee and the late Stanley Wayne Hall. He accepted Christ at an early age. He graduated from Thorndale High School in Thorndale, Texas, where he participated in sports and band. He continued his education at Austin Community College and Huston-Tillotson University in Austin, Texas pursuing Computer Engineering. His first love was music and he enjoyed playing and singing; he was a part of a local gospel group Spiritual Jubilee's with his friends, playing at local churches. He went on to join other bands locally and in California; where he sang and played various musical instruments and was known for playing the drums.

He loved sports and enjoyed playing golf. He had a fascination for cars and gadgets and was always good at repairing things. Along with loving music he also loved technology and worked on complex applications and coding. He worked for Motorola for several years where he created a product, they would later patent. Chris started his own business freelancing and contracting through his company CWN/Pinnacle Consulting Services. Through his work he traveled extensively working with big corporations including NASA in Houston, Tx. But most of all, he loved spending time with his family and friends. He enjoyed movie nights to barbequing and just hanging out.

Chris was preceded in death by his father Stanley Wayne Hall, and grandmothers O'Dessa Williams and Johnnie Lee Hardin, grandfathers Joe Williams and James "Tootsie" Mays.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his mother Dessa McGee of Round Rock, Tx, his son Malik Hall of Kansas City Missouri, his sister Sylvia Martin of Round Rock, Tx, brother Patrick Hall of Round Rock, TX, sister Karen Davis (Antonio) of Hutto, TX, and Amanda Hall of San Antonio, Tx, his grandson Kalik, his nieces and nephews Tasha, Pat Jr., Kimberly, Branden, Kayla, Mykell, Caleb, Lia, great niece Savannah and a host of relatives and friends
