Steven Edward Penson was born September 26, 1979 in Bastrop, Texas to James and Shirley Penson. He joined church at an early age under the late Reverend J. D. Cleveland. He attended school in Austin Independent School District. He enjoyed gambling, chess, and good game of monopoly with his kids, dominos and spades with his parents and loved to travel with his wife. "Big Steve" as he was known by many, was preceded in death by his grandparents Vera and William Penson, Lucious and Charles Etta Miller, and his brother James "Puddin" Penson.

He leaves to cherish his memories his wife Michelle, mother Shirley, father James (Connie), his five children Krystal (Joel), Ly'Jae, Lonniesha, Adronia, and Aaron. Godson Josiah Molina, two grandchildren Aaydin and Mister; and two more on the way, great nephew Josiah, great niece Amethyst and his very special niece Jasmine (Sir Derrick), longtime special friend Jerome "Moe" and a host of family and friends.
