

Sylvia Ann Williams

June 15, 1966 - February 9, 2016

Sylvia Ann Williams was born on June 15th, 1966 to the late Kathryn Rogers Hilliard and George W. Williams. Sylvia's early childhood from kindergarten to the 8th grade she attended St. Austin's Catholic School. She graduated from LBJ High School with the class of 1985.

She is preceded in death by nephew Zachary Hilliard and niece Amber Hilliard, father George W. Williams, sisters Dianne M. Hilliard, Katheryn R. Traylor, brother Dave H. Hilliard and mother Kathryn Rogers Hilliard.

Sylvia was our little character, as a child with that amazing, beautiful breathtaking smile of hers. As a child she was very accident prone as our mother Kathryn (Other Momma) would say "my child with nine lives". You wouldn't believe the mishaps our Sylvia had: she swallowed a dime, drank turpentine and then proceeded to drink her bottle of milk, which actually saved her life. What was the ultimate encounter was her jumping in the bed having a wire coat hanger become lodged in her eye and our big sister "Lil Kat" removing it without any damages.

Sylvia was fourteen years old when she accepted Christ at Loyalty Missionary Baptist Church. Sylvia had a personality that was contagious. Everyone who met her never forgot her, and as a matter of fact you were considered part of her extended family. Her warm spirit and beautiful smile was the invitation to her heart. Family was very important to her. No matter what the circumstance, she was compassionate and always had tender words of comfort.

Our beloved Sylvia never complained, she battled her illness with courage and grace. Even during her sickness Sylvia was always concerned about her family. Through her pain everyday she fought to stay here for her devoted sister Shaunder but, God knew she was tired and he called her home to rest because through all of the suffering and pain He knew her body could no longer sustain her. Sylvia loved her sister and she knew that Shaunder had done all she could do to keep her here. We all loved her but, God loved her more and Sylvia closed her eyes on February 9th, her sister's birthday. We rejoice, because Sylvia is now with her family where pain will be no more.

Sylvia's memories are cherished by her devoted sister Shaunder Johnson. She is survived by her three stepchildren Michael, Misha and Chrystal, brother-in-law James Howard Traylor Sr., her nieces Rochelle Hilliard, Kimberly Traylor, Felicia Hilliard, Jacqueline Traylor, Latrice Wilson, Leslie Traylor, LaTonya Traylor, Renata Traylor, Chemeron Malone; nephews, James Everett Traylor, John Mason III, James Traylor Jr. (Danya), Christopher Mason, Cedrick Traylor and a multitude of great nieces, nephews and cousins and her special beloved friend Richard Justice.
