

Tamaran Sha'Lynn Houston-Dancy

January 7, 1978 - April 3, 2016

Tamaran Sha'Lynn Dancy was born in Austin, Texas on January 7, 1978 and passed on April 3, 2016. Her parents are Clayton Houston and Kathryn Houston. In 1988 she moved to Maryland with her mother Kathryn and returned to Austin, Texas in 1990. In July 1996, Tamaran married her high school sweetheart Corey Dancy and with that union two children were born. For the past 19 years, the Dancy family has spent all of their time together traveling across the USA with the military—Tamaran considered Austin, Texas and Atlanta, Georgia home.

Tamaran graduated from Lyndon Baines Johnson High School in June 1996. She graduated in the National Honors Society and was also part of the Del-Teens Youth Group throughout high school. Tamaran was also honored as a top candidate at the JJ Pickle Research Center Summer Program at the University of Texas at Austin. In 2008 she graduated with honors from North Metro Tech with an Associate's in Medical Assisting.

She was an avid reader who spent countless hours enjoying printed text—her all-time favorite was the Harry Potter Series.

Tamaran always cared for others throughout her life. She had various jobs from customer service, nursing and even child care. She put others needs before her own and it always showed in her actions. Some of her happiest moments were taking care of children, rather it be her own or others.

Tamaran leaves her husband Corey A. Dancy and children Camri A. Dancy and Terrell S. Dancy to live on in her memory. She also leaves to cherish her memory, her parents Clayton Houston (Beverly) and Kathryn Houston; grandmother, Johnnie Mae Houston; and mother-in-law, Wanda El-Amin. Tamaran touched many lives to include her siblings Sha'Bree Houston, Sedric Williams, Julius Lott, and Ormand Houston; uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins other relatives and friends.

Tamaran was a loving wife, caring mother, kind sister and a phenomenal friend that will be dearly missed and loved in the hearts of everyone.
