

Teresa Diane Turner

August 10, 1965 - July 25, 2024

Teresa Diane Turner was born on August 10, 1965 to Richard Turner and Rosetta Williams. She attended grade school in Fairmont, West Virginia. She accepted the Lord at an early age and loved life and embraced it every day to the fullest. Her energy and laughter were contagious and she accomplished everything that she set her mind to. She furthered her education at Fairmont State University where she received a degree in Criminal Justice.

Teresa was employed many years for the Department of Labor as their chief chef before retiring in 2009. She was an excellent chef in which she shared this gift with her family, friends and the community. In later years, she opened a restaurant to share her passion for cooking. Other passions Teresa loved were spending time with family, friends, reading the Bible and supporting her church in the Hospitality Ministry.

On November 3, 2014, Teresa married Angela Westbrooks and they adopted their terrier mix, Dumpling better known as Lil' Girl.

Teresa was preceded in death by her grandmother Sadie Edison, her mother Rosetta Williams, step father John Edward Bass Sr. and Aunt Cora Parker.

Teresa leaves to cherish her memory:

Wife: Angela Westbrooks Turner

Father: Richard Turner and wife Fannie

Brothers: Alvin Turner, Richard Turner Jr., Jason Bass, Johnny Bass, Gregory Jett, James Williams, John Bass Jr., David Williams, John Ware

Sisters: Bertha Turner and Trina Turner

Cousin: Anah Zariah Close friends Krystal King, Andrea Alexander and a host of nieces, nephews, church members and friends.
