

Terrance Deman Tealer

March 2, 1981 - August 20, 2024

Terrance Deman Tealer was born on March 02, 1981, to Edward Sr. and Alice Tealer in Taylor, Texas. On the evening of August 20, 2024, Terrance quietly departed this life.

Terrance accepted Christ at an early age and was a member of Zion Chapel Missionary Baptist Church in Taylor, Texas before making Austin, Texas his home.

As a young boy, when he thought no one was looking, Terrance loved throwing rocks at the train dashing nearby on the train track, or chasing the ice cream truck with his brothers and nephews. He also enjoyed racing with his siblings on bikes pretending to be "Pantro" from the 1980's cartoon Thunder Cats. Terrance was excited when he came home to show everyone his student of the month certificate. His nickname was "Hobbie" because he loved wearing his Scobby Doo underwear.

"Tealer-Boy" as he was better known to friends, enjoyed watching the Chicago Bulls, Spurs, and Texans play. Many will say he was a good guy who loved playing sports, shooting pool, listening to music, and hanging out with friends and family.

Terrance is preceded in death by his father, Edward "Yankie" Tealer; a brother,

Louis Tealer; grandparents Alfred and Mattie Mae Collins and Robert and Lucile Tealer; brother-in-law John Defreitas; niece Camille Tealer; aunts Margaret Seaborn and Doris Jackson-Wiggins; uncles Kenneth Tealer; Charles Tealer, Rev. Eddie Tealer, and Alex Arnold.

Terrance is survived by his loving mother Alice Tealer, his adored daughter, Keovanie Tealer, and beloved partner Melanie Clark. His siblings will fondly remember him: brothers Edward Tealer Jr., Timmie Tealer, Christopher Tealer, Kim Tealer (Angie), and Kelly Tealer. Sisters Janice Defreitas(John), Dawn Tealer, Audrey Coleman (Darius), Raysheall Vanscoy (William), Shelia Wilson (Kevin) and countless cousins, nieces, and nephews.
