

Tiffany Nicole Joyner

November 14, 1972 - June 12, 2017

Tiffany Nicole Joyner was born to Edgar Eugene Fields and Lois Marie Joyner on November 14, 1972 in Austin, Texas. Tiffany accepted Christ at a young Age. Tiffany was educated through Austin Independent School District, graduating from Johnston High School in 1991, and graduating from Southern Career Institute. Tiffany was also a Certified Medical Office Specialist (MOS). Tiffany was employed with Tele Service Resource, Harrison Book Publishing, and Medicaid Services until her health failed.

Tiffany had a very positive attitude about her illness until the end. Tiffany loved her family deeply and when she was around she kept you laughing. Tiffany's laughter was so inspiring and will never be forgotten. Tiffany had a special bond with her Aunt Pat who was like a second mother to her. Tiffany had a special bond and love for her boys (Marketh, Lil Lester, Shawn, Torin, Freeman, Malcolm, Pudgie, Di Jon, and Jordan) She also shared a special love for Cedicia (Cee Cee) Allen, who was like a daughter to her. She loved Kobe Bryant and the L.A. Lakers.

Tiffany is preceded in death by her maternal great grandparents (Eddie & Lorine Hardin), her paternal grandparents (Edgar & Velma Fields), and two aunts (Marci Lee Cyphers & Ira Jean Ford).

Tiffany leaves to cherish her memory her loving mother, Lois Joyner; father, Edgar Fields; grandmother, LaVerne Lee; sister, Joi Nelson (Don) ; brother, Nicholas Bailey (Bianca); three aunts, Cynthia Sibley (Andre), Pat Moore (Max), and Kirsten Lee; three uncles, Altee Hardin, Sr., Willie James Lee

(Connie) and Ronnie Ford; one nephew, Kameron Nelson; special first cousins, Shawn Joyner, Tameka Mays-Halley, Ticia Lee, Torin Moore, McKinley Cyphers, Marci Fields, Velma "ReRe" Fields, Amy Fields, and Theresa Edwards; her very special ride or die girls Sh'linda Harris and Cassandra Kelly; her play brothers, Donald King and Dietrich Dickson; and a host of other special family and friends.
