

Tracy Latress Scott White

December 31, 1961 - May 3, 2023

The Obituary

“Don’t Grieve for me, for now I’m free; I’m following the path God laid for me.”

Tracy Latress Scott White was born on December 31, 1961, to the late Moses Lee Scott and Cleo Scott (the youngest of four children) in Taylor, Texas.

Tracy graduated from LBJ High class of 1980. Following graduation she married her high school sweetheart, Antonio “Tony” White, Sr.

Tracy worked at Brackenridge hospital for a short time before working at her family’s business the Chicken Shack “The Shack”.

Being the daddy’s girl that she was, growing up she learned how to butcher hogs and drive a diesel with her daddy at her side.

Tracy will always be remembered as bold and outspoken. Tracy wasn’t afraid to try new things and she was truly one of a kind.

Tracy is preceded in death by her dad, Moses Lee Scott and her beloved husband, Antonio White, Sr.

She leaves to cherish precious memories; her only child, Antonio White, Jr.

(Lakeitha); her mother, Cleo Scott; two brothers, Moses Scott, Jr. and Charlie Scott; her sister, Gracie Scott Shaw (Carl); grandchildren; Journey and Jeremiah, aka Her Goonies, Alford and Latoine; many nieces and nephews; Shaun, Scott, Chudney, BreShaun, Nikeesha, Jamiha and Jermaine; a host of extended family, friends and the "HILL" all of Sam Houston.
