A Life Well Lived

“I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:
Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.” II Timothy 4: 7-8 “ Vera were my cousin and one of my best friends, We would talk on the telephone sometimes everyday.If she missed your call-she would always get back with you. She was the same person everyday, with a good sense of humor.Always tried to repay you when you when you did something for her,I told her that her head were hard-she told me that mind's were harder; because I wouldn't accept anything from her.I lost a soul sister and a good friend.

TO: Melvin, Ray, the Wilson and Henry family.: You have our deepest and sincere sympathy.

“ Aunt Vera

*You will truly be missed. Thank you for always trying to look out for my brothers daughter after my mom passed. Thank you for always being you. Every time we had a family function by the end of the day I could count on you to pull me aside crying and tell me I need to come around more. I will miss you telling me to stop starting stuff(lol). I will also miss your pasta salad. I know you're in a better place up there with all the other Wilson's. Til we see each other again. Love you

Ms. Wilson, that's what I called you. You were a sweetheart from the day I met you, always looking out for my dad and making sure he was fed. I will remember the beautiful hair ,I always wanted, that fried catfish, homemade chicken noodle soup and all the good salads. My heart broke to hear you were gone. I know my dad welcomed you in with a joke.

“ I already knew Mrs. Vera from church but I didn't know she was as tough as she was until one afternoon I was picking granddaughter up from Campbell Elem .When a lady hit the backend of my car and attempted to drive off as though nothing had happened. Well Ms. Vera came running up to the car and made that lady stay on the scene until the police got there. Thank you Ms Vera!! You will be missed!
