where he joined the Wesley Chapel United Methodist Church. He married Doris Fleming and they welcomed two children. Later, he went on to Houston where one child was welcomed. He spent the majority of his working years in Odessa, TX with the Ector County Independent School District with building maintenance. He was proud of the work he did and trained many young men and women to have that same pride. He retired in 1984 and moved back home to Austin, the city he loved. He believed one should work very hard to be successful in life. Mr. Young did that.

On July 1, 1999, he married Eliza Santiago Hawkins. They enjoyed 22 years together in which they traveled and made wonderful memories with family and friends. He was a gentleman and he always credited his father for those life lessons. His belief in hard work was exemplified throughout his life.

Virgil was preceded in death by his parents, his daughter, Joyce Diane Frederick; his brothers, Charles Young, and G. Milton, William
