Wallace Lee Reynolds Sr.

May 11, 1938 – March 2, 2025

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of Wallace Lee Reynolds Sr., a devoted husband, father, veteran, and friend. Wallace left this world on March 2, 2025, just shy of his 87th birthday, leaving behind a legacy of love, dedication, and service.

Born in Bridgeton, New Jersey, Wallace was the eldest of twelve siblings, a role that shaped his strong sense of responsibility and leadership. During his time at Bridgeton High School, he excelled both on the football field and in track, demonstrating the discipline and perseverance that would define his life.

Following high school, Wallace answered the call to serve his country, enlisting in the United States

Air Force. It was during this time that he married his high school sweetheart, Yvonne, and together they built a life filled with adventure, resilience, and unwavering love. Their journey took them across the world, with military assignments in Florida, North Carolina, Scotland, Texas, Turkey, and the Philippines. Wallace dedicated 23 years to the Air Force, proudly serving his nation with honor and integrity.

After retiring from the military, Wallace continued his commitment to service as the Executive Director of Support Operations for a Washington, D.C.-based law firm, where he worked for nearly two decades. His leadership and work ethic left a lasting impact on colleagues and friends alike.

In his well-earned retirement, Wallace found joy in the simple yet meaningful aspects of life—his faith, his garden, and his love for racquetball. A devoted member of his church, he carried his values of kindness and generosity into every community he was a part of.

Wallace leaves behind his beloved wife, Yvonne Reynolds, and their two children, Wallace

Reynolds and Monica Wollmer, who will continue to carry his love in their hearts. His presence will be deeply missed, but his spirit will forever live on in the lives he touched.

A life well-lived, a man well-loved. Rest in peace, Wallace.
