

Walter Lee (MACK) McDonald

May 22, 1939 - February 6, 2021

Walter Lee McDonald was born May 22, 1939 to Raymond and Elizabeth Bynum McDonald in Brenham, Texas. He received his education in the Brenham School System. Walter was employed with the Austin Independent School District (AISD) as a bus driver. He worked many years until his retirement. He accepted Christ at an early age. He was a member of Refuge Holiness Church under the leadership of Elder Bobby J. Loving, Sr.

Walter was known all over Central Texas for his melodious voice. He sang with the Gospel Tones, The Gospel Mourners and the Royallites. Often, you would hear him singing his favorite song, "Dr. Jesus said, Everything Will Be Alright".

Walter was an avid fan of the Dallas Cowboys, he loved football. He was a great husband and father. He united in holy matrimony with Ms. Emma Lee Myers Brown on December 15, 2007. There were no children to this union, but together they had blended families of McDonald, Johnson and Brown.

Walter passed away at home after a very long illness on Saturday,

February 06, 2021, surrounded by family. He will be greatly missed. He was preceded in death by his parents and 8 siblings. He leaves to cherish his memories: his wife, Emma McDonald; sons: Marlon McDonald of Austin, TX, Rhandy Johnson and Casey Johnson of Odessa, TX; Daughter: Monique Owens of Elgin, TX; 4 bonus children: Billy Jr, Marcia, Terry and Toni Brown; Brother: Eddie McDonald (Kim) of Phoenix, AZ, and host of nieces and nephews and other family members and friends.

“ *I have nothing but fond memories of Uncle Walter. I remember the laughter that filled the house when he was around. I love the memories of singing with him and mama and Aunt Corrine. He was the one we stayed with when my mother was having my my brother Lil James. It is a part of my childhood that is lost with his passing. May God grant the family comfort and peace and may we all meet again in the Sweet by and by.
