

Wanda Jean Dixon

August 14, 1964 - January 24, 2026

Wanda Jean Dixon, a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and a woman of faith, was born August 14, 1963, in Wharton, Texas, and raised in Boling, Texas, where she attended Boling High School. From an early age, Wanda displayed a quiet strength, a compassionate heart, and a deep love for family - qualities that remained the foundation of her life.

Wanda accepted Christ and was baptized at Faith Temple Church of God in Christ under the leadership of Pastor Allen. Her faith was not only something she professed, but something she lived daily-guiding her decisions, shaping her character, and anchoring her through every season of life.

On December 5, 1987, Wanda was united in holy matrimony to Elder Lerome Dixon, Sr. Their marriage was built on love, respect, and shared devotion to God and family. Together, they created a home filled with faith, perseverance, and unconditional love.

Wanda was preceded in death by her cherished parents, Jose and Mary Rivera, who she loved deeply and whose values she carried with her throughout her life.

She leaves behind a legacy of love through her children, Dominik Barlow (Justin) of Georgetown, Texas, and Lerome Dixon II of Round Rock, Texas.

Wanda found immeasurable joy in her role as "Grandma" pouring her heart into her grandchildren- DaeLynn, Dominique, Arayla, and Justin II - who were the light of her life. She is also survived by her siblings, Arthur Ray (Ernestine), Mary James (Charles), and Kaye Gillis, along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and extended family members who will forever cherish her warmth, wisdom, and gentle spirit.

Wanda Jean Dixon will be remembered for her unwavering faith, her nurturing heart, and her quiet yet powerful presence. She had a way of making those around her feel loved, supported, and truly seen. Though she will be deeply missed, her legacy of faith, love, and family will continue to live on in the lives she touched.
