“ Hey Whitt, it's been too long and unfortunately under these circumstances since the last time we spoke. You remember your birthday party that you invited me to when we were at Dobie? Guess that's when I knew we were friends lol. I pray God continues to cover your family during these tragic times. Until we meet again, earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust... now rest easy my friend!

“ When I think of Whitney I remember a woman who was full of energy and joy. She always brought a party when she entered a room. She was extremely generous with word and deed to anyone, where she saw a need. She deeply loved and cherished her girls and her Mom. They were her world. Whit, you've left us far too young. My prayers are with your family and all who love you dearly, prayers now and in the months to come. Your departure leaves a hole in the hearts of many of us.

“ Whittney, I will never forget you. You were truly one of a kind, always the life of the party, always made my day better. Thank you for always being a good friend, giving me bomb advice, showing me how to do my taxes correctly, & making me better at sales. I will always cherish our memories and the fun times we had together with everyone, even though we didn't know each other that long. I'll miss our regular work lunch dates so much. Praying for your family, friends, and daughters to find peace and strength to keep going during this difficult time. Fly high, friend. See you again one day...
