To The Johnson Family

I would like to share a message with you, all of Rev. Johnson's Taylor, TX friends and church members. I am from Tump's hometown of Littleton. Unfortunately with the exception of several telephone calls, I did not get an opportunity to share time with Rev. Johnson. Even though we all did things in our past that we needed to ask forgiveness, Tump as young man had a peaceful, friendly and fairness about him that we all of us better understand now. We just thought he was a nice guy not someone that has done what he has done for many of you. Around five years ago, my brother Garry (my brother) one of his closest childhood friends had a debilitating stroke, Rev Johnson was on the phone with me asking how he could help. Tump decided to pull together a group of Garry's closest childhood friends to visit their highly depress friend. I thank god for Rev. Johnson and I am so proud to say he was a friend and brother.
