He eventually started a bar and then a restaurant. He moved his restaurant business from Pflugerville to Austin in 1980 when he opened Willie's Bar. He operated his business as "Wally's Bar" for the last 20 years. With support and love from the community he business thrived. He enjoyed going to work and greeting all his loyal customers. It became a place where you could get a bite to eat and get a little advice from a friendly face. Willie had through great love and hard, negotiation, and Jim Crow laws and sometimes made it to a place where he was not allowed. He had to sit and talk shop with all the gun that came in, strong and old. He also tried to keep a special truck for all the kids. Seeing those smiling faces made him happy. He will truly be missed.

It is with such deep sorrow that we lost a great businessman Mr. Willie "Papa" Showels, Sr. He always greeted you at the restaurant, made sure you were taken care of, and always had a kind word to share. The food was always prepared to perfection and tasted good, especially the mutton. Willie's BBQ did a great job catering my brother Steve's Surprise 45th birthday party 2011 (now deceased October 2018) and the 2014 Youngblood Family Reunion Dinner at Givens Recreation Center. Papa made sure to help with the delivery on both occasions. I, too, will miss seeing him when I go to the restaurant. He trained you well and I know you will keep his legacy going with great food and good customer service.

May God continue to bless and comfort the family.

Faithful customer Ms. Arlene L. Youngblood and the Youngblood Family.

My deepest condolence to the entire Shoewls family. I'm so lost for words and me just still shocked. I won't see him sitting at the table to the right as I enter the establishment to order and talking to him waiting on my food.

He was a kind and respectful man he made me laugh about certain things we'd talk about my job and other things that were on the tv that was on. When I see him at H E B he would always have that smile and pleasant attitude.

What a wonderful man who adored his family and friends. Mr. Willie we all love you and will miss you so much. You're in the best of hands. God blessed your loving family you raised them right.

Rest In Peace Mr. Willie,
