“ Wynston gave me laughter during times when I felt I had nothing to smile about, even while he was facing struggles of his own. I'll forever hold onto the many fond memories I have of him, all the way from years of childhood as his neighbor and schoolmate to being many miles apart in adulthood.

I'm sending prayers, love, & light to those suffering through this loss.

“ Christopher and Stephanie,

We will always have fond memories of the times that Wynston spent at our home while our young men were growing up. Please accept our heartfelt sympathy. We will cover you all in prayer asking our Father to comfort and strengthen you during this journey.
