

Zaesean Woodhouse

May 4, 2000 - January 10, 2020

Private First Class (PFC) Zaesean RaeKwon Montreous Woodhouse, Austin Texas, passed away on January 10, 2020 in Colorado Springs, CO; at the young age of 19 years old.

PFC Zaesean Woodhouse was born on May 4, 2000 in Austin, TX. In high school Zae joined the JROTC; that is when he knew he wanted to serve his country. While Zae was still in high school he passed his Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery (ASVAB) and was eager to join the armed forces. Zae enlisted in the U.S Army shortly after he graduated from high school in Round Rock, TX. While serving his country, Zae worked as a 92A (Automated Logistical Specialist) , he wanted to follow in his grandfather Larry Williams footsteps and become a Green Beret; so he became Airborne a short time after reaching his permanent duty station in Ft. Carson, Co. Zae, thought jumping out of plans would be fun. He was assigned to FSC 3rd Battalion 10th Special Forces Group (Airborne).

PFC Zaesean Woodhouse is survived by his mother and father Tamica N. Furs and Frederick J. Woodhouse; his father's wife and bonus mother Kaywana L. Sparkman-Woodhouse and bonus father Richard Furs; his two brothers Jaeden and Paeden Woodhouse; his bonus brother Amarion Sparkman; his eternal brother Nik Parrish; his grandparents Joyce Williams (Larry Williams); Adrian Lee (Pat Lee); Annie Howe (Lester Howe); Eddie Woodhouse (Debrecca Woodhouse); his Godmother Magdelene Frederick and an endless list of family and friends.

PFC Woodhouse was a loyal soldier who spoke about how he wanted to retire from the Army. In his short time on the Armed Forces, Zae oversaw the organizing and inventorying of his units shop stock listing. He loved jumping; he was the only soldier in his unit who tried to jump every parachute on an airborne operation; he was an absolute go-getter. Zae excelled in physical training (PT), when Zae's unit competed in the incline, he would beat everyone in the platoon running and was always the first one to make it to the top; he was something like a PT stud. Outside of his military accomplishments, Zae was such a sweet soul. It was a joy just to be in his presence. From his contagious smile, goofy laugh, off beat dance moves and awesome conversations. Zae never met a stranger and tried to see the good in everyone. We will forever cherish the memories we shared. Son, you received your Army wings but now you have your Heavenly wings to carry you home. We will all be together again some day.

“ Thinking of you today and always. 🧡 Happy Veterans Day — thank you for your service and the sacrifices you made. I pray you’ve found peace and rest in heaven. I’ll forever remember the kindness towards me, the love you always showed me, and the friendship you showed me growing up. Even though life took us in different directions, I never stopped wishing the best for you and your family. You’ll always have a special place in my heart Zae, I love you, and I pray God continues to bless your family, and allow you to watch over them 🧡

“ You were one of my first new friends at Success HS. My time there was short and life split us apart but I always wished you well. You truly were a good person that deserved nothing but the best in life. Your presence lit up any room you walked in. I remember when you picked up photography and started taking shots around the school. I still have the ones you took of me on my phone. I hope you’re getting the rest and peace you deserve.

“ Soooo many Great Memories of your beautiful life. I used to tell you that you had a old soul... you had to be the most humble, respectful, positive and well mannered young man I have ever had the honor or knowing. You would never call me Sherita... it was always Miss Sherita, I asked you why and you said “I was taught to always respect anyone older than me, no matter what others my age or younger are doing I have my own set of morals and values” those words coming from a 12th grader blew me away. Zae we love you dearly and will miss your ya handsome smile and witty ways tremendously. REST IN PARADISE FLY HIGH
